Preface

1. Overview of the MDA

1.1. Introduction

The Tonga Fire & Emergency Services (TFES) has been acknowledged for coordinating and carrying out proactive fire prevention and responding to fire and other emergency calls. We are committed to continuously improving the services that we provide to the community and the people in the Kingdom of Tonga. We aim to be recognized not just as an excellent emergency responder but also as an agency that reduces risks to the community that provides our people with the services they need, that is effectively managed and governed, and that provides excellent value.

The TFES Statement of Corporate Intent has been prepared and summarizes the Services objectives for the period covered by the Corporate Plan. This new corporate plan of the Service – TFES is aligned with high level Government objectives including the TSDf II national outcome objectives. The TFES programmes and sub-programmes are designed to improve the functions and service delivery of the Service.

Currently there are a total of five (5) divisions under which staff operates. These are:

1. Corporate Services Division;
2. Training & Development Division;
3. Emergency Response Division;

In pursuant to the Corporate Plan 2018/2019 – 2019/2020, these 5 divisions are broken down into four (4) sub-programmes for the purposes of operating its own budget for their expected project delivery.

TFES primary purpose is to minimize the social, economic and environmental impact of fire and other emergencies in our community. This will be achieved through implementing strategies to develop community self-reliance to prevent and prepare for fires, supported by a timely and effective response to emergencies.

Who we are?

TFES is all about the people – our staff and the communities that we serve. TFES members that serve the community, they are part of the local community. Community expectations are high and our focus is on front line service delivery through all stations to all Fire districts.

All 120 Commissioned, non-Commissioned officers and civilian staff are dedicated to working towards delivering the most proficient service possible with the overarching objective of achieving our vision and mission statements.

We continue to sharpen our focus on the frontline through "Accountability and self-discipline at all times" as part of our service delivery philosophy. This has merged our focus from our limited facilities to our senior management team with this single purpose. This is to ensure alignment of the entire Service on the front line, whether they are suppressing fires or educating the communities and people across the whole Kingdom of Tonga.

With the solidification of emergencies in our service delivery, the Services established an Emergency Response Division (ERD) which is made up of staff with specialized technical skills that would be of assistance in times of an emergency response.

Although we have five (5) divisions, these have been allocated across 4 Sub – Programmes which is illustrated on the 'TFES Strategic Map'. The Strategic Map indicates our aims and missions and what we as a Service strides to deliver.

We aim to work cohesively with other emergency responders to further improve our interoperability. To achieve this, we are striving towards a common doctrine across emergency responder agencies that also deal with emergency response.

A new era has begun for the Services. We are not going to stop here, but rather work on a foundation to improve with each new Financial Year and meet each new challenge that the year may bring. By working together with the Government and people of Tonga, we can be the best service that we can be.

1.3 Governance and Operational Structure

The TFES organisation structure is based on the type of function performed, classification of personnel employed in each division and the overlapping geographic factors.

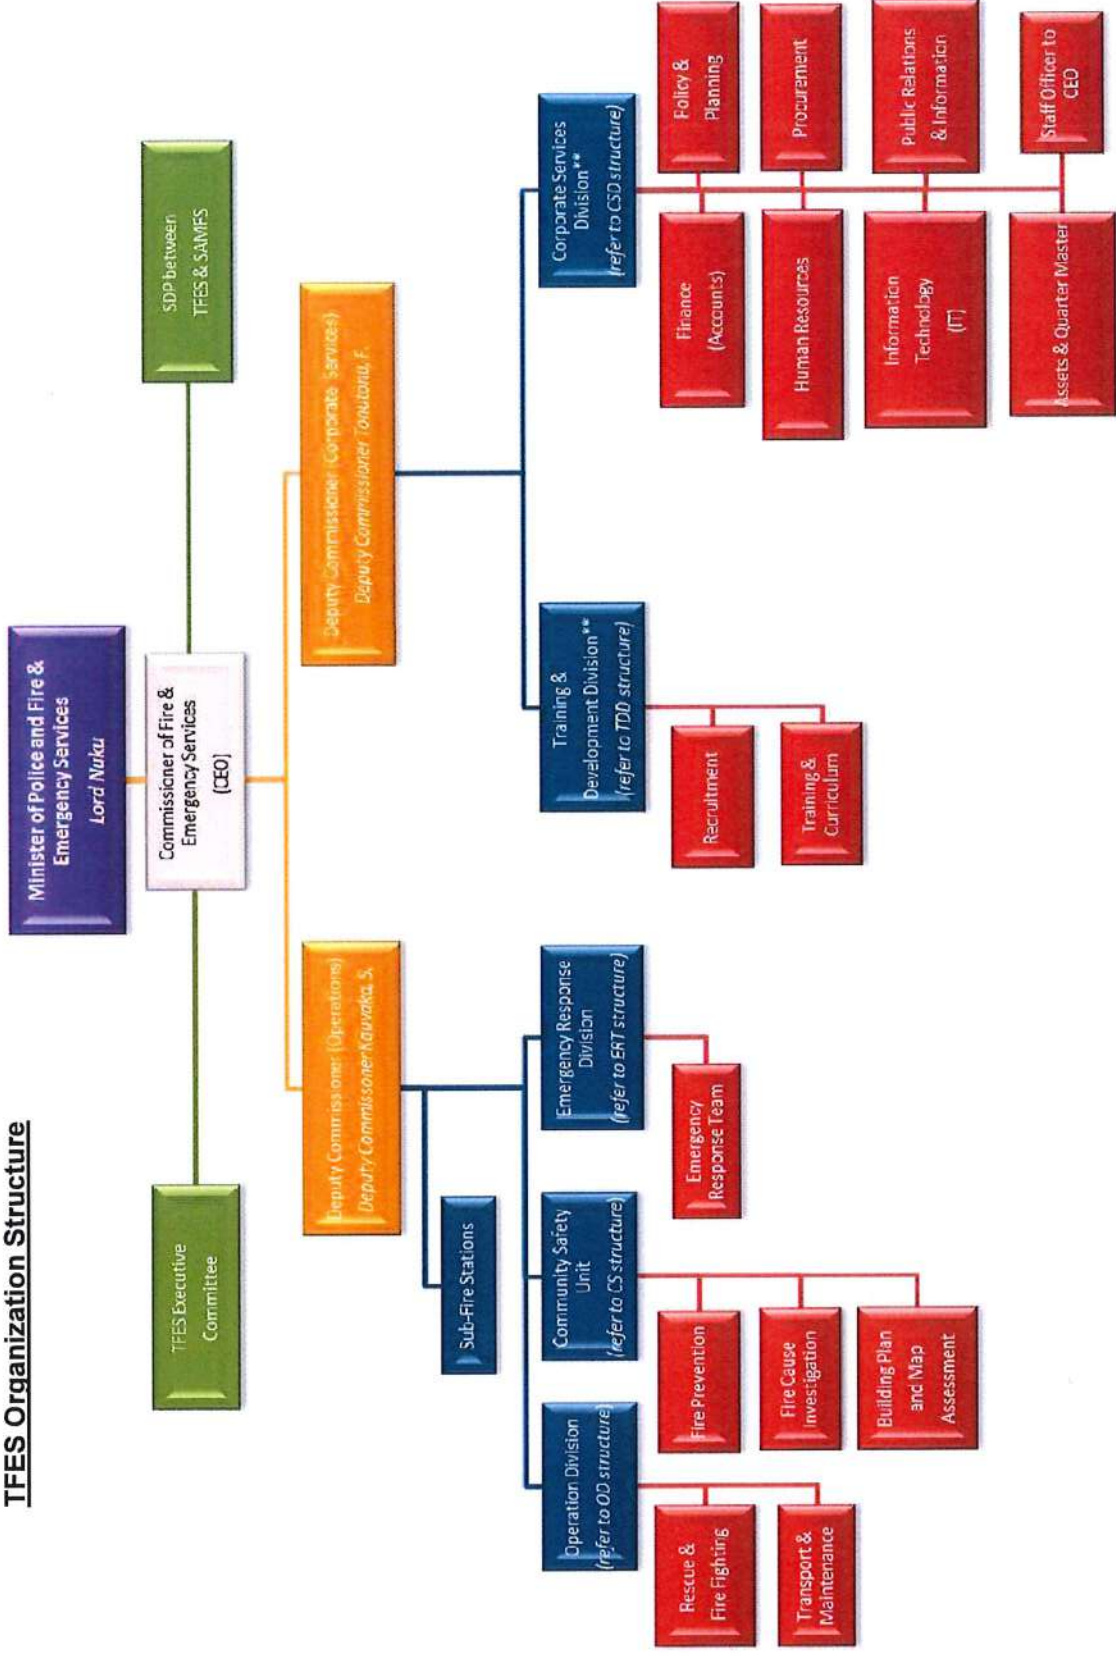

Ranks	Major Responsibilities
Minister for Police and Fire & Emergency Services	Overall Command
Fire & Emergency Commissioner	Responsible for the general efficiency of the Fire Service
Deputy Fire Commissioner	Responsible for the general efficiency of the operational and administrative duties

The executive administration of TFES is led by the Minister for Police, Fire & Emergency Services and supported by the Fire and Emergency Commissioner. They hold external and internal responsibilities linked to the performance indicators. Externally, the Service's Executive Officers are responsible for supervising and providing appropriate advice and guidance on management of the Services.

Within the Service, the Minister is responsible for providing leadership and political direction necessary for the delivery of the Ministry's programs and sub-programs. The Fire and Emergency Commissioner manages the administration, development, and implementation of the Service's sub-programs and provides necessary leadership to the staff.

At the divisional level, each program is managed by a Fire Commander (Officer Commanding) whose performance is measured by respective divisional outputs.

TFES Organization Structure

1.4. Performance Management framework

Internal performance review

The Tonga Fire and Emergency Services (TFES) has committed to the full implementation of the Performance Management System (PMS) pursuant to our work policy - Standing Orders, chapter 21, section 286 – 297.

PMS

Performance Management System (PMS) is still a relatively area for the Tonga Fire and Emergency Services (TFES). Our first exposure to PMS was through training towards the end of 2016, with much hesitation and wariness on our part to execute the program. It was not until the beginning of 2017 that we began to actively invest in the importance of PMS. With the diligent assistance of the PSC PMS Team we have undergone our first trial and were successful. We with the PSC PMS Team have conducted trainings in all three stations here and the outer islands and it has proven to be very effective. In less than a year we have transformed into a believer in the PMS system and today we have fully implemented the system.

The majority of our staff go through two years intensive training of recruitment where our core values are introduced and lived by each recruit. These core values include integrity, professionalism, service and consideration. When the PMS system was first introduced there was obvious reluctant from staff but because of the core values induced in them they were committed to see it through. The commitment of the Commissioner, the two Deputies, executive officers and all senior officers were the only added encouragement that the fire fighters needed

Job Descriptions: In an environment where our tasks are performed in groups at most times we did not feel the need of a job description but with the PMS system we have now acknowledge the significance of a job description to the performance of each individual fire fighter. Each one is now aware what their job description is and where they need to improve and acknowledge where their strengths are at.

2. MDA Performance

2.1. Human Resource Management

Human Resource Management is a process of acquisition, development, motivation, and maintenance of human resources of an organization. HRM is a part of General Management that deals with the human aspect.

Established Staff

Specific financial provision for each established post is made in the Annual Estimates in accordance with the salary scale currently approved for the post. Established posts must, wherever possible be filled by established staff. The Cabinet is the Central authority for all established TFES Staff appointment unless otherwise provided by Legislation;

Appointment and Recruitment

The wastage caused by retirements and resignations in the Service is considerable and as such there is a need for the right type of recruit for appointment;

The best recruiting medium is undoubtedly the fire officer with whom potential candidates discuss the service as a career. All members should always be ready to assist recruiting not only by giving advice and guidance to young men and women of the right type who approach them, but they should continually seek to interest young people with whom they come in contact in the value of a career in the service.

The Service is committed to appoint the people best suited to position based on merit; This is to ensure all appointments made are based on the skills, behaviors, abilities and competencies necessary to carry out their roles effectively, efficiently and in keeping with the core values of the Service.

Designing work

TFES has two different methods for recruitment of staff:1. Recruitment of firefighters

This is a recruitment of persons to enter the 2-year Recruit Program, specifically designed for firefighters. This recruitment is mostly aimed at non-degree holders, with a minimum educational requirement of a Form 5 pass. No previous work experience is necessarily needed.

Staffs recruited under this method are usually recruited in groups and annually.

2. Recruitment of technical skills

This recruitment for persons with specific technical skills, such as information technology, law, accounting or other technical skills. This recruitment is aimed at degree holders (or relevant tertiary graduates), previous work experience desired and recruited on a need-to basis.

Compensation of staffing follows requirements of the Remuneration Authority system. However, TFES is an out of line department and therefore does not follow the requirements of Public Service Commission. Benefits, such as leave and other claims are set out under the Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs).

- Lack of vehicles for daily administrative operations;
- Lack of awareness of emergency number despite effective community programmes;
- Lack of building infrastructure available for Services; and
- Lack of Training facilities and equipment for Fire Fighters

3.2. Risks and risk management

As an emergency service provider, TFES tries to mitigate risks in any work plans as much as possible. Effect of plans on the environment and the public is always taken into consideration.

However, because of TFES' mandate in conserving and protecting the environment as much as possible, its work plans are usually developed around the principle of environmental and public protection. Any risk for public safety and environmental conservation is mitigated until the safest alternative is found.

4.3. Ministerial directives

4.4. Governance disclosures

NA

4.5. Government policy requirements

TFES operates as an out of line ministry and is governed by:

- Tonga Fire and Emergency Services Act 2014
- Standard Operating Procedures
- Cabinet decisions

4.6. Board and committee remuneration

Under legal mandate (section 16, Tonga Fire and Emergency Services Act 2014), an Executive Committee is established to assist the Commissioner in various matters. However, the Executive Committee consists of senior management level officers and they are not remunerated separately. Remuneration for their duties under the Executive Committee are part of their salary.

5. Conclusion

The Fiscal year 2019/2020 results have been satisfactory despite certain constraints which obstructed the advancement of the Service.

TFES still give their best efforts to educate the general public about Fire Safety awareness and prevention – we still cannot prevent fires from occurring. However, we are nonetheless still dedicated to spread fire awareness and prevention techniques, and we continue to undertake projects that aim at improving fire safety and awareness throughout the Kingdom.

In addition to our usual duties, the Services also underwent a learning curve with declaration of the State of Emergency due to COVID-19. As a first responder, the Services was integrated into various teams to provide support and advice. This venture saw the Services providing supporting teams to the Ministry of Health and Tonga Police, as well as safety inspections of various facilities under the Shelter Cluster. This caused a strain on the Services due to the lack of human and physical resources because of the fact that the Services still needed to maintain usual and daily functionality.

Despite the many problems affecting the Services, I am never short of being surprised by the dedicated men and women that strive to deliver the most competent service while at the same time appreciating the limited resources that the Services has to operate.

I take this opportunity to thank our stakeholders and other Government departments for the working relationship throughout the financial year 2019/2020. Many things were made possible due to our inter-operability. Special acknowledgment is due to the Government of South Australia and SAMFS for all their positive contributions for the development of the Service.

Thank you to the Minister – Lord Nuku, for his support and guidance during this financial year.

Apologies are sought for any shortfalls on behalf of the Services.

Viliami. F. TU'ihalamaka
Commissioner for Fire & Emergency Services
